

Jazz McKinney, MA, LLP

Jazz (they/them) is a Black, Indigenous (Ojibwe and Cherokee) Two-Spirit individual that although born and raised in Detroit, has made West Michigan their home. Jazz has been involved in the mental health field for over 7 years and with racial justice work as well as advocacy/activism in the 2-SLGBTQ+ community for over 15 years, committing themselves to highlighting the importance of education, awareness, and involvement to create change. They are passionate about working to decolonize gender roles and identities as well as discussing the impact that harmful gender binaries can cause within our communities.

Jazz McKinney, MA, LLP – Co-Owner and Lead Trainer of Paradigm Shifts Consulting

Ally: Ally – Lucy Dyer-Joswick, Executive Director of Camp Blodgett lucy@campblodgett.org